'Anti-Dissident' Order Is Canceled by Army HEIDELBERG, Aug. 9—The agents were to note the name,

Army headquarters here congressmen.
Said: "The document was deToday's army statement termined to be inappropriate, as guidance on dissent contained in army regulations is directing an intensified miliconsidered sufficient and sol- tary counter-intelligence prodier dissent within the com-mand is presently at a very low level." tary counter-intelligence pro-gram against underground ac-tivities within the U.S. Army,

The directive, leaked last

U.S. Army today cancelled a new directive for surveillance of dissident GIs less than a week after the directive was leaked to the press.

said: "This headquarters is not

"The major concern of comweek by a GI in the adjutant general's office of the 8th In-such as espionage and sabo-fantry Division, detailed a pro-gram in which intelligence and damage to equipment."